

YOUNG REPORTERS COMPETITION

Grade V

To encourage and develop journalistic skills among students the Young Reporters Competition was organized for Grade V on 4th May'24 at WVM. The aim of this competition was to provide a platform for students to express their opinions and perspectives thereby promoting critical thinking and research skills. This competition encouraged to foster journalistic skills and creativity among the young minds.

For the competition the students had to report on Natural Disasters or Current Events and they were judged for their fluency, pronunciation, vocabulary, content, presentation and confidence. The students showcased exceptional reporting skills, demonstrating a deep understanding of current events and issues. Creative and thought-provoking articles impressed the judges.

Overall this competition was a resounding success, allowing students to showcase their journalistic talents and thereby nurturing the next generation of journalists and media professionals.
